

2007 TABE ESL TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

INTRODUCTION: At the heart of every successful ESL program are caring and dedicated teachers who believe in the value of dual language instruction as a way to help language minority students excel academically. These are women and men who approach the teaching and learning process with a remarkable sense of responsibility and are guided in their actions by the deep-seated conviction that every student is important, that education matters, and that one teacher can make a difference. These are indeed extraordinary educators whose daily work in the classroom is performed con orgullo y excelencia. In recognition of outstanding teaching and exemplary professional service by ESL teachers throughout Texas, the Texas Association for Bilingual Education has established the TABE ESL Teacher of the Year Award.

AWARD: The winner of the 2007 TABE's ESL Teacher of the Year competition will be publicly acknowledged and honored during the awards banquet at the annual fall conference of the association where a special plaque recognizing her/his outstanding teaching will be presented. Travel costs are provided for the winner to attend the TABE Conference.

Nomination Guidelines

NOMINATIONS: Only local affiliates of TABE are eligible to nominate ESL teachers for this competition. Each affiliate is limited to one nominee. Members holding the office of president of local TABE affiliates are ineligible to participate in this competition. Local affiliate groups may use any method they choose for selecting a candidate for this award as long as the process is fair and impartial and conducted without regard to age, sex, race or ethnicity, handicapping conditions, or religion. The selection must be based on evidence of outstanding ESL instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS: Nominees must meet these qualification requirements:

- Full-time classroom ESL teacher in any grade level in a TEA-approved ESL program
- Texas ESL teacher for at least three consecutive years prior to receiving this award and be actively engaged in full-time teaching in an ESL classroom at the time of the award
- Certified or endorsed in ESL
- Current member of TABE
- Current member of NABE
- Recognized by the local affiliate for outstanding teaching
- Provide documentation that indicates that the nominee enjoys the respect and admiration of students, parents, and colleagues
- Exhibit distinguished leadership service to the profession and the community
