The Journal of Bilingual Education Research & Instruction (JBERI) is a peer-reviewed publication focused on improving bilingual education research and teaching practices. The JBERI seeks articles that examine research, pedagogy, policies, theory, and cultural issues that impact bilingual education, teaching, and learning. Qualitative and quantitative studies that can contribute to the growing knowledge base on bilingual education models and best practices are especially welcome. The JBERI will publish articles written in either English or Spanish. The Editorial Board will consider clarity and timeliness of the content in judging the quality of the manuscripts.

Format and Style Requirements

- Authors should follow APA (7th edition) guidelines for style, citations and references. Those not following APA style will be returned without being reviewed.
- Manuscripts should be between 15-25 pages, double-spaced, Times New Roman, size 12” font, and one-inch margins.
- Submit manuscripts in a “blind” format and include a separate MS Word-doc/x-file with name(s), addresses, telephone numbers, E-Mail addresses and institutional affiliations of author(s).
- Include abstract of about 150 words describing the essence of the manuscript and list of key words.
- Authors should send manuscripts as an E-Mail attachment, MS-Word-doc/X-file type to:
tinajero@utep.edu
- It is the author’(s) responsibility to ensure that reviewers’ comments are addressed and that any stylistic and grammatical errors are corrected prior to publication.
- Papers accepted for publication in the Journal of Bilingual Education Research & Instruction become the copyright of the Texas Association for Bilingual Education.
