

2017 TABE BILINGUAL/ ESL SECONDARY TEACHER OF THE YEAR AWARD

INTRODUCTION: At the heart of every successful bilingual and ESL programs are caring and dedicated teachers who believe in the value of dual language instruction as a way to help language minority students excel academically. These are women and men who approach the teaching and learning process with a remarkable sense of responsibility and are guided in their actions by the deepseated conviction that every student is important, that education matters, and that one teacher can make a difference. These are indeed extraordinary educators whose daily work in the classroom is performed con orgullo y excelencia. In recognition of outstanding teaching and exemplary professional service by bilingual and ESL teachers throughout Texas, the Texas Association for Bilingual Education has established the TABE Bilingual/ESL Secondary Teacher of the Year Award.

AWARD: The winner of the 2017 TABE's Bilingual/ESL Secondary Teacher of the Year competition will be publicly acknowledged and honored during the awards banquet at the annual fall conference of the association where a special plaque recognizing her/his outstanding teaching will be presented. Travel costs, registration, and up to five tickets for the awards banquet are provided for the winner to attend the TABE Conference.

Nomination Guidelines
